C. F. von HERRMANN.
Meteorologist, Weather Bureau.

plotted, if General Atterbury had his way.

"Should Prevent Catastrophe."

The telegram was signed by B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor; J. J. Hynes, international president of the Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers' International Alliance; Martin F. Ryan, general president of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America; James P. Noonan, international president of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers; J. W. Kline, president of the International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths, Drop Forgers and Helpers of America; J. A. Franklin, president of the International Brotherhood of Boiler Makers, Iron Shipbuilders and Helpers of America, and J. P. Anderson, vice president of the International Association of Machinists.

The telegram asks President Wilson to take immediate steps to have all the evidence in the case presented to the interstate commerce commission, and says that the union representatives were calling his attention to the matter only because "no stone should be left unturned to prevent such a catastrophe as outlined by General Atterbury."

Pleads Urgency.
General Atterbury declared that the railroad situation was so urgent that he could entertain no proposal of conferences with employees, as they could not agree. He added that "even a few days' delay might throw the whole situation into chaos and flood the board with petitions from railroads for reductions of wages."

General Atterbury appeared before the board in behalf of the American Association of Railway Executives' labor committee, of which he is chairman. He declared that unless operating expenses were immediately reduced many roads faced bankruptcy, and that wiping out the national agreements offered a quick solution to part of the problem. A reduction of $200,000,000 a year in operating expenses could be effected by overruling the existing agreements and restoring the status of December 31, 1917, he said.

The national agreements, he continued, were "forced on the railroads as war measures, and cause gross waste and inefficiency." The first step in the railroads' retrenchment should be removal of these agreements, which the roads declare will materially reduce operating expenses.

Rejects Conference.
Suggestions by members of the board that further conferences be held between the roads and employees were rejected by General Atterbury. Judge R. M. Barton, chairman of the board, said he considered some basis necessary for railroad operation, and questioned the wisdom of wiving out the existing agreements. Rebuttal by the employees would be heard immediately, however, he said, and the matter taken up at once by the board.

Protest against Mr. Lührsen's statement was made by E. T. Whittier, chairman of the railroad committee, before the board, on the ground that the train dispatchers have no national agreements and were, therefore, not entitled to speak on that subject but the chair decided it could not rule on the request.

"I want to enter formal protest because the carriers have already presented arguments which, without proper rebuttal by the employees, cannot help but leave an impression upon this board detrimental to the case of the employees," said Mr. Lührsen. "The statement made by the carriers that unless immediate action is taken in line with their request, the railroads will be forced into national bankruptcy, is deceptive and fictitious."

Claims Inefficiency.
Mr. Lührsen declared that close analysis of operating records disclosed operating inefficiency which, if rectified, would produce a saving greatly exceeding the $300,000,000 waste alleged by General Atterbury as the result of the national agreements. He objected to restoring to the roads the status of December 31, 1917, on the ground that it would deprive train dispatchers of benefits obtained under rules of working conditions made under federal control.

Mr. Lührsen declared that if the board was flooded with individual requests for wage reductions by the railroads "such action would be a concerted propaganda tending to interfere with the orderly procedure of this board in consideration of the matter now properly before it, and the individual railroad would be acting under instructions to bring into existence a chaotic condition."

Union Leaders' Statement.
In support of their statements that they did not believe that General Atterbury was presenting the actual facts, in his statement, the union leaders declared that investigation of evidence concerning the railroads had revealed the following:

"That the transportation system of the country is absolutely controlled by the New York banking group centering around the house of Morgan.

"That this group is treating economic service to the public as the welfare of the employees as a consideration secondary to the selfish purpose of amassing wealth and farmers and of destroying legitimate organizations of their employees.

"That investigations made by governmental agencies will show that the railroads have embezzled the efficiency and inflated costs.

"That the roads have deliberately attempted to prevent employees from showing records of efficiency under the national agreements and in many cases have undermined morale.

Claims Deliberate Plan.
"The deliberate claims as to the restoration of efficiency under private ownership, the roads have failed to substantiate and rely to operate inefficiently and uneconomically.

"That they are attempting to discredit organized labor by charging this lack of economy to the organizations of their employees.

"That they have reversed the old financial practices which prevailed previous to the passage of the Clayton act, and have conspired to inflate the cost of railroad operation by the repair of hundreds of locomotives and tens of thousands of freight cars at excessive prices.

"That in the above outlined practices, they have conspired to inflate the cost of railroad operation by the repair of hundreds of locomotives and tens of thousands of freight cars at excessive prices.

CLOSURE SOUGHT ON FORDNEY BILL

Failing to Receive Unanimous Consent for Vote, Republicans Would Limit Debate.

Washington, January 31.—Senate republican leaders, in accordance with their program for procedure with the Fordney emergency tariff bill today asked unanimous consent for a vote February 15, and upon objection, presented their petition for closure or limitation of debate. Senator Flanders, democrat, Ohio, objected to the proposal for a vote February 15 after an address in which he denounced the bill as "taxing about everything that goes on the breakfast table of the workingman."

The closure petition, presented by Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, in charge of the bill, bore names of thirty-four republican senators and will be voted on at 1 o'clock Wednesday. It requires a two-thirds vote for adoption and its defeat was conceded tonight by both republicans and democrats.

Further Plans. In presenting the closure plan, the first time an attempt has been made to invoke it since the senate controversy over the Versailles treaty, Senator Penrose had exhausted every reasonable effort to get an agreement for voting. He did not indicate what would be done with the bill in event of defeat of the closure, but Senator McComber, of North Dakota, and Borah, of Idaho, republicans, served notice they would attempt to hold the bill before the senate and make every effort to get a vote before the session ends. The notices of these two senators were regarded as likely to change plans for laying aside the bill in event of a failing of closure. It was said that instead of side-tracking the bill formally, it probably would be laid aside temporarily from day to day to give consideration to the session's appropriation bills. Private predictions were general, however, that there was little prospect of enactment of the measure.

Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, senior democrat of the finance committee, announced his support of the proposal to vote February 15 and Senator Underwood, of Alabama, minority leader, offered no objection. However, Underwood denounced vigorously the proposal for closure, declaring it contemplated "grafting" the bill on the senate. The minority leader added that duties proposed in the Fordney bill were "prohibitive and declared they would make the tolling masses carry the great financial burden for the relief of special interests."

To Cost Consumers. "It is the first time," said Mr. Underwood, "that the republican leadership has faced the country with the direct proposal to erect a tariff wall not for revenue but to establish an embargo in time of peace. The sugar tariff, Senator Underwood asserted, would cost consumers about $400,000 and would increase retail prices to 12 or 13 cents a pound. Similar predictions also were made by Senator Smoot, republican, Utah, who declared the tariff would be used to "squeeze the farmers being mentioned incidentally."

"Trace the snake to its hole," he added, "and you find legislation for the sugar trust and other combinations."

Duties on wool, which were considered today by the house ways and means committee, also caused a lively senate tilt. Senator Borah said it was "monopoly" and could help wool growers when two years' supply of wool now are on hand. Senator Smoot, republican, Utah, however, contended that passage of the bill would raise the price of raw wool.

COURTS-MARTIAL ARE SUSTAINED
BY HIGH COURTS

Washington, January 31.—Conviction by court-martial of Alexander Kahn, Donald Fisher and Robert L. Leacock, on charges of murder, committed while they were inmates of the federal prison at Leavenworth, was upheld today by the supreme court. Decrees of lower courts dismissing writs of error sought by the three men were affirmed. The court also upheld a sentence of ten years' imprisonment imposed by military court-martial at Camp Sevier, S. C., on Captain William J. Givens, after conviction of manslaughter in the killing of Private Will McKinley, on September 28, 1918. In this case the court affirmed lower court decisions denying Givens a writ of habeas corpus.

American Destroyers, Fleet Forerunners,
Arrive in Callao

Callao, Peru, January 31.—Three United States destroyers, under the command of Captain Kenneth M. Bennett, arrived here yesterday afternoon, forming the advance guard of the United States Atlantic fleet, which will pay a visit to Peruvian waters. The American ships were given an enthusiastic reception, the docks being crowded with people who commenced on the splendid impression made by the little war vessels.

The official program arranged for the entertainment of the officers and crews of the American ships will begin tomorrow with the arrival of the battleship squadron of the fleet, Admiral Wilson, commander-in-chief, will go to Lima for the purpose of paying a visit to President Leguia, the foreign minister and ministers of marine. A four day holiday, beginning tomorrow and ending February 3, has been declared by the president.

Tomorrow night, William E. Gonzales, American ambassador to Peru, will give a banquet in honor of Admiral Wilson and officials of the fleet, and later an American colony will give a ball.

Manchester Guardian
Describes as "Folly" Reparation Terms

London, January 31.—Allied reparation terms decided upon by the supreme council in Paris last week were described as "folly" by the Manchester Guardian today. The newspaper said: "We may be thankful the terms can never be executed." In the opinion of this journal Germany will be able to pay indemnities only by exported goods. "If she exported every year an additional $500,000,000 worth of goods to France, England and Belgium," the newspaper said, "the outcry raised by competing manufacturers of those countries would be heart-rending. It is already audible."

"Cash Commissions"
By Ship Chandlers To Be Discontinued

Order by "Consent" Is Issued by Federal Trade Commission.

Washington, January 31.—Issuance of orders requiring thirty-five ship chandlery and repair companies at South Atlantic and Gulf ports to refrain from giving "cash commissions" and other gratuities to induce trade, was announced today by the federal trade commission. The orders were issued as "consent orders," the announcement said, each company having agreed to accept the order without opposition after expressing a willingness to discontinue the practice of giving presents and cash gratuities to the officers of ships contracting for supplies or repairs. The commission reported that it was making an investigation of the alleged practice among companies at other Atlantic ports. The house judiciary committee now has under consideration a bill by Representative Sims, of Tennessee, making it a misdemeanor to accept or offer money or other things of value in connection with the purchase of supplies for ships. Hearings on the bill were held before the committee on February 12.

Would Amend Volstead Law, Making Jail Sentences Mandatory for All Violations.

Washington, January 31.—Prohibition leaders in congress are hoping to tighten up the Volstead law. They are planning new legislation to provide a flat jail sentence for the first offense of selling liquor, without giving the courts the optional right of imposing a fine. Other changes being discussed among the prohibition leaders relate to the search and seizure clause, so as to reach the home brew and to make the sweeping present law under which a person selling it, according to the liquor held by citizens, regardless as to when or how it was acquired, liable to seizure of all stocks held in private cellars, or a safety deposit box, and to make the sale of bootleg trade and that it would be long before all such liquor would be used up.

Unless a pending bill, which would permit federal commissioners to try minor liquor cases, is passed, a proposed amendment to the law would take care of this. Federal court dockets are now badly congested with Volstead violations and government officials have reported a change of procedure necessary. A big fight for amendment will start with the opening of the new session in April, according to dry leaders. They say they have enough votes in the house to carry through any added restrictions they might desire, but that there is not enough time left.

Hoboken, N. J., January 31.—The death toll resulting from the fire which destroyed the Hotel Colony here, today totaled thirteen—seven women and six men. The bodies of five of the victims—three women and two men—remained unidentified this morning. The bodies were badly charred and hope of identification rested mainly on the few pieces of clothing and jewelry found in the debris.

JOHNSON REPEATS TREATY ATTACK

Secretary Colby, However, Refuses to Join "Ghost Dance" on Japanese Question.

Washington, January 31.—People of western states are "entitled to know, and know now," what disposition is made in the tentative Shidehara-Morris treaty, Senator Johnson, republican, California, declared today in a formal statement. He reiterated that the treaty in effect repealed the California alien land laws. "If Senator Johnson expects to do a ghost dance on this subject, he's got to do it without me as a partner," Secretary Colby declared today in an informal statement, replying to the California senator's latest statement on the proposed American-Japanese treaty.

Tells Source. Referring to his own statement of last week in which Secretary Colby's comment upon it, Senator Johnson said: "The secretary of state says that my comment upon the tentative agreements made by Ambassadors Shidehara and Morris is based upon an 'erroneous assumption' and that the danger which I suggest do not present themselves in those agreements. My comment was induced by press reports purporting to emanate from authentic sources. From these I stated a treaty had been tentatively agreed upon which in effect repealed the California alien land laws. The secretary of state says in substance this is not so. Either the press reports are erroneous or Mr. Colby is misinformed. I am constrained to believe that Mr. Colby is in error."

But a controversy between the secretary of state and myself as to what is contained in the report of Ambassador Morris is of no consequence. The contents of the report are important and I am entitled to know what that report contains. Yesterday it was discussed at length in Japan. Our people should not have to await its detail through Japanese news channels.

People Should Know. "It is not sufficient that the representatives from California, or the foreign relations committee, under a promise of secrecy, should finally know what disposition is intended to be made of the agricultural lands of California and other western states. The people of these western states are entitled to know it, and entitled to know it now. The grave question here is not whether I am right in saying that a treaty has been presented which in effect repeals our alien land laws, or whether Mr. Colby is right in saying that no such draft of a treaty has been presented. The matter is far beyond any personal controversy. The question is, what has been done on the subject in which the west is most interested and which most intimately concerns the west's future. And the west should be told forthwith."

DAN DAVIS TELLS OF DEATH OF HALL

Man Charged With the Murder of His Former Tenant Details Tragic Passing.

Soperton, Ga., January 31.—(Special.)—The trial of Dan Davis, charged with the murder of William H. Hall, a former tenant and insured in the life insurance policy of $50,000 in favor of the defendant, came to a close this afternoon with a more or less graphic story by Davis as to the tragedy, and a detailed account of his relations with Hall, and which ran over a period of years. The courtroom was again crowded that scores were turned away.

Witnesses were first called this morning to testify as to bruises received by the four men charged with the murder of Hall, when the auto in which the five men were riding ran off a bridge into a shallow creek. Hall being pinned under the machine. Davis then made a statement.

While somewhat pale, Davis wore an air of composure that was notable in distinct contrast with the seriousness of the accusation resting against him. He said that early in 1920 Hall came to him and asked that he take out some insurance in his (Davis) favor, as the former owed him $3,000 on an unsecured note. The insurance was made payable to the defendant for this reason. This particular application was turned down. Davis affirmed, but later Hall asked another insurance agent to take his application for two $5,000 policies, payable to Davis. This was done and the policies issued.

Takes Out Third $5,000.

At a still later date, Davis said in his statement, Hall took out another policy for $5,000, payable to the witness, the reason advanced for this additional insurance being:

THIN BLOOD MAKES YOU LAZY

Strengthen and Build Up Your Blood With Pepto-Mangan

Men and women who are on the road to big success are not lagging on the way. They are bright and cheerful because their systems are fed with rich, red blood. Weak blood, thin and sluggish, will never get you anywhere. You would be surprised how many people are just drifting along, half alive. They never want to do anything—never get anywhere—half because their blood is in bad condition.

The sensible thing to do is to keep the blood pure and full of red corpuscles. Pepto-Mangan will do that for you the way it has for millions of men and women in the past thirty years. Notice the difference after your blood gets plenty of red corpuscles in it. See how you'll pop out of bed early refreshed and ready to do big things.

But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for "Gude's" and be sure that the name is on the package. If you prefer tablets take them. If not, ask for the liquid. Both have the same medicinal value.

ing that "Hall" wanted me to be secure on what he owed me, and wanted me to take care of his children, as his wife would waste it if she had the insurance."

Davis said that Hall left his farm in May, 1920, moving to Kite. On September 12, of last year, he said, he called on the owner of the farm where Hall was living for the purpose of renting it. On the next day, the 13th, Davis said he "found Hall on his place with Wiley Smith," and that after breakfast, when "Hall had fish and drank sweet milk," he was informed over the phone by Coleman that the "hogs were in his field," and that he went to look after them.

Some time later, Davis continued, Hall, Wiley Smith and Durden joined him and Coleman in the field where the hogs were, and that "evening the whole party ate watermelon."

"Coleman then said he had to go to Norristown, and I wanted to go along, as I had business there," Davis related in his statement. "Hall, Durden and Smith then said they wanted to go, and they started. Hall asked me to get him some tobacco while there. We staid in Norristown for about 15 minutes and then started back home."

In detail Davis went over the return trip, telling how the motor was running bad, and that as they got to the fatal bridge, Coleman suddenly exclaimed "Look out!" "In another moment we were in the water," Davis said. "We were under the edge of the bridge, pulled me out. Then we were all out except Hall. We called to him he never answered."

FARM FEDERATION CRAPPED TRIALS

Charge Organized Private in Membership and Aim, Promoted by Tax-payers.

Washington, January 31.—(Special.)—Representatives of various farm organizations in America will tomorrow fire the first gun in a war on the American Farm Bureau federation that promises not only to become a barrage before the week is out, but to array farm organizations against each other in the most sensational fight ever witnessed between potential forces of a single great industry in this country.

The specific charge will be made before the house banking and currency committee at a special hearing for the purpose called for Tuesday, that the American Farm Federation is wholly a private organization, composed of a private citizen membership for private and co-operative purposes only, and that it is not only being promoted, but organized by the federal government on a fee basis and yet at the same time is being used by the government to promote the purpose of the Smith-Reed extension fund, and the federal farm loan act.

News of the impending fight has spread to all parts of the nation, and farm leaders are hurrying into the federal capital to prepare for the fight. The charges are being made by the American Farm Bureau federation, which is a private organization, and the charges are being made by the American Farm Bureau federation, which is a private organization, and the charges are being made by the American Farm Bureau federation, which is a private organization.

Finances Improve.

Some increase in the demand for labor in Massachusetts was noted in January, but the Boston employment office informed the board that the number of applications was the greatest on record during the first days of the month.

The number of unemployed has increased decidedly in the Atlanta district, and "idleness" has become widespread in the ranks of the unskilled. In many lines wage reductions have already been made, the board added.

Financially, the month has been encouraging, the board declared. Slackening in the demand for credit resulted in a material reduction in the total outstanding volume of circulation, amounting in the month to about $5,000,000, while gold holdings increased to about $25,000,000. In private finance, the board said, the month has been a period of improvement of values in most classes of securities. Various minor issues of foreign public bonds have been floated with success, and a number of relatively important private issues have been sold to the public, although all of these sales, according to the review, have taken place at rates which indicate a continuation of high levels of interest.

Contrasted with a further general curtailment of operations by cotton mills in the north, significant recovery were noted in the mills of North and South Carolina, some of which were said to have resumed operations on approximately full time. Wage reductions in effect in southern mills at the end of the month were reported as averaging about 25 per cent.

Cotton Unpicked.

Although considerable cotton was reported as still remaining in the fields in the southwestern district, the review was said to be saving most of the unpicked crop. Twenty per cent of the Oklahoma crop was said to have been picked, while in St. Louis district, belated picking was said to have been stimulated by a temporary market for weather-stained cotton. Increased picking of the ungraded crop in the Richmond district also was reported, due to a slight stiffening in prices.

Increasing evidence was noted of a tendency to greater diversification of the crops in the Dallas district, with a heavy increase in winter grain acreage reported, while in the Richmond district there was said to be "much talk" of reduced acreage for both cotton and tobacco.

Atlanta Mills Idle.

Due to the falling demand for lumber, a large proportion of the southern pine mills located in the Atlanta district were said to be either running on short time or closed down entirely, with 125 mills reported as actually producing of 51 per cent below normal.

Unemployment in the Atlanta district was said to have been stimulated by the closing down, or short-time operation, of a large number of blast furnaces and mills, while mills and factories in the district also were said to be operating on greatly reduced scales.

Decreases in building operations were said to have been shown in practically every city in the Richmond and Atlanta districts, the value of building permits issued in the former district during December being 40 per cent below the value for the same month last year.

Atlanta Mills Idle.

Due to the falling demand for lumber, a large proportion of the southern pine mills located in the Atlanta district were said to be either running on short time or closed down entirely, with 125 mills reported as actually producing of 51 per cent below normal.

Unemployment in the Atlanta district was said to have been stimulated by the closing down, or short-time operation, of a large number of blast furnaces and mills, while mills and factories in the district also were said to be operating on greatly reduced scales.

Decreases in building operations were said to have been shown in practically every city in the Richmond and Atlanta districts, the value of building permits issued in the former district during December being 40 per cent below the value for the same month last year.

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

New Elixir, Called Aspirinal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Indorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter If Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up.

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspirinal, the two-minute cold and cough remedy, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories tested, approved and most enthusiastically indorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirinal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonsful with four teaspoonfuls of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow, and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspirinal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest and cough remedy for infants and to take and the most agreeable cold children.—(adv.)

The system that makes your files almost human

How long does it take your file clerk to produce a letter from your files?

Take your watch the next time you ask for a letter and see for yourself.

Then think of the time, work, and worry you would save by installing the system which finds and files in less than ten seconds!

The "Y and E" Direct Name Filing System is the last word in scientific filing systems—yet like most labor-saving devices it owes its virtue to its utter simplicity.

Even a green inexperienced clerk with this system can produce a needed letter in not more than ten seconds. In many offices the average is under four seconds!

PRESIDENTS INDORSE MOOSEHEART PROJECT

Organization Heads Extend Invitation to Locate Institution Here.

GOVERNOR FOR HOME. Governor Hugh Dorsey is strongly in favor of making every possible effort to have the second Mooseheart home located in Georgia and believes that the people of Atlanta should give their support to this movement. "I am well acquainted," he told a Constitution reporter last night, "with the work of the splendid institution already established in the west and would like to see a similar one located here."

The Presidents' Club of Atlanta, composed of heads of forty-eight civic and other organizations, at a dinner at the Piedmont hotel Monday night, extended an invitation in the form of a resolution to the Local Order of Moose to locate its second Mooseheart home in or in the vicinity of Atlanta.

The resolution, which was submitted by Colonel Frederic J. Paxson, emphasized the many advantages to be derived from such a location and was as follows:

Be it resolved, That in view of the Local Order of Moose a cordial invitation to locate their proposed Mooseheart No. 2 at or near the city of Atlanta.

We feel that from the standpoint of transportation, climate, agriculture and general trade and market facilities Atlanta stands pre-eminent as a suitable location for an institution of this kind, and in the event they should locate here we wish to assure them of a warm and hearty welcome.

Resolved further, That a copy of this resolution be sent to Rodney H. Brandon, supreme secretary, Mooseheart, Ill.

Committee Visits City. It will be remembered that a committee of prominent members of the executive council of Moose visited Atlanta only a short time ago and inspected a number of prospective sites for the second Mooseheart home, which the order is planning to establish somewhere in the south to accommodate widows and orphans of members of the fraternal organization who cannot be taken into the first Mooseheart home at Mooseheart, Ill.

Five hundred acres or more will be necessary to the establishment of the home, and several desirable sites were shown the visitors by interested realty men during their visit to Atlanta.

The plan, which will entail an expenditure of over two millions of dollars, will be located in some southern state, and Birmingham, Augusta and other cities are hard at work trying to land the institution.

The local realty board, the railroads and a number of other organizations in addition to the Presidents' club, have indorsed the campaign to bring the home to Atlanta, and every indication points to a concerted drive of civic forces to secure the institution. The matter was called to the attention of civic organizations by M. D. Gleason, who has been enthusiastic in his successful efforts to place Atlanta in the fight for the home.

Elaborately Equipped. Mooseheart home, No. 1, at Mooseheart, Ill., is one of the most elaborately equipped charitable institutions in the country, a monster among plants of its type, beautifully kept and conducted and an asset of which any city might be proud. Local civic and development leaders have entered the campaign to defeat all opposition from all competing southern cities, and it is generally conceded that this city's chance for landing the home is bright.

Among the members of the recently visiting committee were some of the most prominent figures in the country, and in addition, the order of Moose also includes such nationally prominent men as President-elect Harding, James M. Cox, recent candidate for the presidency on the democratic ticket; Vice President Thomas R. Marshall and many others who are boosters of the Mooseheart home system.

Smashing of the iron cap at the spillway of Silver Lake, believed to have been an act of vandalism, has destroyed the lake and swept all the fish into the Chattahoochee river. The property on which the lake was situated is now owned by Oglethorpe and camping spot since it was "horpe" university.

to Bear on Them by the Sale.

THIS, in a nutshell, is the domestic rug situation, as we now see it: stocks in the hands of manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers are extremely low. Many mills, owing to disagreements with labor, are closed. An acute shortage of rugs looms on the horizon. What prices will be by the fall of 1921, no one can say. But this we do know: the prices we quote on rugs in our February Home Furnishing Sale are anywhere from 15 to 25% below normal spring of 1921 retail prices!

These Rugs are from the best producers in America. Qualities are A No. 1. Color and pattern ranges are of good proportions. The Sale prices are:

—9x12-ft. Axminster Rugs	$45
—9x12-ft. Axminster Rugs	$55
—9x12-ft. Wilton Rugs	$85
—9x12-ft. Wilton Rugs	$95

—9x12-ft. Wilton Rugs	$135

Just From Georgia

By FRANK L. STANTON.

A Ballad of Change.

I write of roses in a riot red.

Of Spring that with a sweet blossoms petals

The town; blizzard blows the shingles

And beats the shutters down!

I write of ice-packs, polar terrors

Bringing: Spring lights the windows of the World below. A mockingbird is singing!

Alas, these changes of the seasons

Sad! Tomorrow's mystery—we can't unlock it! Change everywhere, in all things,

Good and bad, But little in your pocket!

"Not Prepared—Goodbye!"

The Manufacturers' Record says that

Captain J. W. St. John, manager of the American Agricultural Chemical company, received the following unique answer to a request for money:

"Dear Sir—I received your letter about what I owe you. Now be patient. I ain't forgot you, and as soon as folks pay me I'll pay you.

If this was judgment day and you no more prepared to meet your God than I am to meet your account, then you shoud go to hell, Goodbye."

Turn of the Tide.

Good Times, they're never gone—

Don't you sinners scoff! Spring puts her bonnet on

When Winter blows it off!

Still the fire's burnin'—

Hope o' homecomin'; Tide is in the turnin'

An' the ship come home!

A rural correspondent of The Arkansas Gazette tells this one:

"Recently a young man of Paragould went rabbit hunting. He shot a rabbit clean, clear, smackdab in two and although the front half of the rabbit was still in the better half, he was hopping through the woods until it found a hollow log."

Is the Weather Man Agreeable?

No more snow, no more ice late. Weather suits yer wishin'!

Chillin', run an' get the bait—

PISTOL AND POISON CLAIM TWO LIVES

J. O. Hood Drinks Carbolic Acid. G. B. Thrasher, Shot in Scuffle After Suicide Threat, Dies.

G. B. Thrasher, night watchman at Couch Brothers Manufacturing company in East Point, died at a private hospital at an early hour this morning, making the second successful attempt at suicide in Atlanta within the past 24 hours. J. O. Hood, 184 Belwood avenue, salesman for the Peerless Sausage company, died at his residence shortly after 9 o'clock Monday morning from the effects of carbolic acid.

Thrasher received a fatal wound in the abdomen in a College Park drug store early Monday after a dark had refused to sell him paracetamol to which he said to have been addicted. On the clerk's refusal the watchman offered him the gun with the request, it is claimed, that he be turned on him.

The clerk refused and Thrasher stepped outside the door with the statement that he would shoot himself. As he pulled the gun from his pocket several men standing nearby attempted to wrest it from him and during the struggle the watchman was shot. He was brought to an Atlanta hospital from where his body was carried to Pooles' undertaking parlors.

Hood, who was well known to local grocers, left his wife shortly before he was found in a dying condition, ostensibly to get some medicine. In another room, his financial condition was reported to be good, but he was said to be dependent over the recent death of his mother and two sons.

Hood is survived by his wife and little nineteen months old daughter, Edith, and a sister Mrs. R. M. Jones. The body was carried to the chapel of Awtry & Lowndes pending funeral arrangements.

MINE UNION OFFICIAL BEFORE COAL PROBERS

Green Withholds Comment on Merits of Calder Regulatory Bill.

Washington, January 31.—William Green, secretary of the United Mine Workers of America, appearing today before the senate committee considering the Calder coal regulation bill, expressed his opinion as to the merits of the measure, but intimated that the labor representative would fight inclusion of any anti-strike provisions. Mr. Green did not complete his statement and will continue tomorrow, when Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has been asked to appear.

Presenting figures as to the labor cost of bituminous coal, the United Mine Workers' secretary said this amounted to 81 cents a ton in 1914 and 12.01 in 1920. The testimony by coal operators that $7.50 for common labor was the lowest scale in bituminous mines, with $5.39 in anthracite operations. Men earning such wages, he added, were employed on the surface and constitute only a small percentage of total mine workers.

Collapses in Court

When her husband and Ernest H. Moore were each sentenced to five to ten years on the gang for robbery, Monday morning, in the superior court, Mrs. Sam Manor collapsed in the courtroom and had to be taken out by two deputy sheriffs.

THREE FIRES MONDAY CAUSE SMALL DAMAGE

Sparks from chimneys was given as the cause of small fires which damaged the roofs of two houses Monday—those of P. C. and J. C. 276 Hemphill avenue, and a dwelling occupied by Lulu Roden, negro, at 357 Chappell street.

A blaze in the establishment of the Stewart Products Service station, 239 Peachtree street, resulting in small damage, is said to have been caused by defective wiring, or short circuit caused by the insulation being worn.

$15,000,000 Total River and Harbor Appropriation Bill

Lump Sum, Without Itemization, Comes to Vote in House Today.

BY JAMES A. HOLLOMAN.

Washington, January 31.—(Special.)—The river and harbor appropriation bill which the house will finally vote on tomorrow carries only an appropriation of $15,000,000 flat, without specifying the various items to which this fund must be applied. This appropriation, however, is based upon itemized figures for individual projects now in the hands of the engineering board of the war department, and is computed as a supplementary form to funds already available.

It will doubtless be passed as it has already gone through the general appropriation and steering committees, and passed the committee of the whole house.

The $15,000,000 provided in, of course, in disregard of the estimates made by the engineering board, aggregating a total of $51,114,915.

The annual appropriations for the past twenty years have averaged around $23,000,000. It will be seen, therefore, that the present congress will cut to a minimum the appropriation for the various river and harbor improvements under way without adding anything for new projects.

In its report, explains as follows: "The committee has come to the conclusion that the appropriation of $15,000,000 for the year 1921, 1920 ($47,149,000), plus the lump sum appropriation of $15,000,000 made by this bill is sufficient to prosecute maintenance and improvement work on the various projects in a manner that will amply provide for the needs of commerce."

The total of the balance on hand, and the amount appropriated in this bill is $62,149,000, which will be sufficient to meet the needs of the various projects for the year 1921, 1920, and between December 1, 1919, and June 30, 1922, at the rate of $3,717,000 per month, or $44,604,000.

The minority report offered by Small, the ranking democratic member of the committee, calls for $25,000,000 for improvement and maintenance of the Brunswick harbor, $22,000 for the Coosa river and $20,000 for other Georgia works, including improvement of the Savannah river.

The minority bill that failed of passage offered as a substitute to the majority carried a total of $38,000,000 in round figures. It is not believed, however, that with the new appropriation and the unexpended balance, that these Georgia projects will be taken care of as originally planned.

CITY GETS $88,534.15 FROM POWER COMPANY

Voucher Check Represents
Two Per Cent of Gross Receipts.

The city of Atlanta received from the Georgia Railway and Power company Monday a voucher check for the amount of $88,534.15, the percentage tax of the company for 1920.

Under an ordinance of the city the company is required to pay into the municipal treasury 2 per cent of its gross receipts from certain reductions on account of the payment of licenses, sanitary tax and franchise tax of the company for that amount to $63,575.

The percentage tax was payable on the gross receipts from passenger tolls and property, the sale or supply of electric current for light, heat and power and the sale or supply of steam heat. The gross income from these sources, according to the statement of the company, was $7,505,657.30.

YEGGS OPEN SAFE AT HARVESTER CO.

Cracksmen Get $175.
Three Negro Bandit Suspects Held—Four Burglaries in Two Days.

COINCIDENT WITH THE PLACING OF three negro bandit suspects behind the bars at police station Monday, officials were informed of the robbery of the safe of the International Harvester company, at 129 East Hunter street, at an early hour Sunday morning. Three other burglaries, all of minor importance, were reported.

After opening the safe by drilling off the combination, and without the use of explosives of any sort, the cracksmen of the Harvester company secured about $175 in money and postage stamps.

The fact that stock certificates and other valuable papers were untouched indicates, police assert, the work of experienced crooks, who sought only articles impossible of identification.

The three negroes arrested are believed to have been implicated in numerous recent highway robberies. Officers Turner and McMichen assert that not only were the negroes acting in a suspicious manner when arrested, but that their appearance and description of bandits given by numerous victims. Their records are being investigated.

Their names are Sol Poole, of 132 East Harris street; J. D. McCutchen, of 178 East Harris street, and Charles Stinson, of 358 1/2 Fort street.

The grocery store of R. A. Hono, 445 Griffin street, was entered Monday before daylight. The thieves secured $15 and some merchandise.

Other burglaries were reported at the Piedmont pharmacy, 145 Marietta street, from which $15 and merchandise was taken, and at the store of J. K. Kimball, 1472 Atlanta avenue, where the lock from the door and a small sum of money and some groceries were obtained.

FIRE DESTROYS BANK, AFTER BOLD ROBBERY

Virginia Countryside Incensed by Destruction of Customs Records.

Newport News, Va., January 31.—The Commonwealth Bank at Reedville, Va., was looted and burned here today, thieves carrying off $16,000 in cash and $15,000 in bonds and other securities.

The building and all notes and records of the bank were burned. All records of the deputy collector of customs were destroyed, as were those of the Commonwealth's attorney. These officials had offices on the second floor of the building.

The blaze was discovered about 2:30 o'clock this morning. Volunteer fire fighters made their way to the vault and found both the vault and the inner safe and the vault looted. It was impossible to reach the offices on the second floor.

Colonel H. Gordon Blundon, president of the bank, is quoted as saying that the cash loss was covered by burglar insurance. Greenville Coppedge, cashier, said the remainder of the loss was uninsured and that there was no means of checking up the destroyed records.

Bloodhounds have been sent for, scores of men are scouring the countryside for the robbers and police of Newport News, Norfolk, Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and other cities have been asked to watch for them.

There is some doubt as to whether the building was deliberately fired by the robbers or whether the structure caught fire from the blast that blew open the doors of the vault, indications, according to the authorities, point to the latter theory.

The robbery was one of the most daring ever committed in that section of the state. Citizens are aroused over the destruction of the records to a point where authorities entertain fears for the safety of the banks if they are taken near the scene.

With Prayer to God
For Mercy Men Denied, Walks to Death Chair

Eddyville, Ky., January 31.—Praying aloud from the time he was led from his cell until the current was applied, Lee Ellison, slayer of Sheriff R. Scott Hunter, of Hopkins county, went to his death in the electric chair at Eddyville penitentiary early today with a plea for divine mercy on his lips.

Ellison confessed to having fired the shot which killed the officer, but maintained to the last that he thought he was firing at negroes who had threatened his life.

N. M. Killian, alias "Red" Killian, who was arrested in Savannah, Ga., Saturday morning, was brought back to Atlanta Monday by Lieutenant Carroll, of the county police force, and was grilling for several hours by Solicitor General John A. Boykin. Killian is under indictment for his alleged connection with the bunco syndicate that operated in Atlanta for the past three years. He is said to have been one of Floyd Woodward's leading aides.

George Lloyd, now under arrest in Huntsville, Ala., charged with being one of the bunco gang, has instituted habeas corpus proceedings to prevent his return by Atlanta officials to Georgia officers. Hearing of the habeas corpus writ will begin in Huntsville Tuesday morning. Pleasant Miner, special investigator for Solicitor Boykin, left Atlanta Monday for Huntsville to fight the proceedings.

The probe by the grand jury into the operations of the "pay off" will be resumed Tuesday morning. About seventy witnesses have been summoned. In addition a large amount of documentary evidence will be placed before them.

Several new witnesses who test large sums of money here through the swindling syndicate have been heard from by the solicitor and will testify. It is expected that sensational features will be developed by the solicitor this week.

Plans are being made to hold a double session of the criminal court next week. Judge D. W. Blair, of Marietta, has been requested to serve in the emergency division and Judge John D. Humphries will preside in the regular division. It is also planned to begin the trial of a number of men already under arrest in connection with the syndicate. Among those to be given an early trial are American Lee, colored; Lonnie Allen and L. C. Coe.

Stock Market Opened Firm
With Auto Shares Leading

BY R. L. BARNUM

New York, January 31.—With the twelve federal reserve banks of the country starting the week with a reserve ratio of 49.0, compared with 48.5 a week ago, 42.4 the low for all time made last year, the stock market opened firm this morning, with the automobile shares leading. Steel, leather and oil shares, however, were heavy. So were the rails. Most professional traders loudly voiced bullish views. Copper shares were strong in the late trading, but sold off when call money went to 8 per cent.

Detroit dispatches received before the opening of the market reported that the Ford Highland Park plant, which has been closed for many weeks, had resumed operations, with 10,000 men employed, and that other automobile and accessories parts were also about to reopen. Then around 11:30 it was announced that the directors of Studebaker, who had been in session for a half hour or more, had declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 per cent. The following statement was then given out by the chairman of the board: "Reports from our dealers generally show sales during January for immediate and spring delivery to customers exceed those of the like period of last year. Our plants are now running on a 50 per cent production basis, which will be greatly increased as spring advances."

Akron dispatches reported that the January orders of the Good-year Tire and Rubber Company had increased 50 per cent over those for December, and that as soon as the company's financial reorganization could be put through production of tires would be increased to meet the expected demand during May, June and July.

Studebaker opened at 53, up a quarter from Saturday's closing, and the advance was maintained. The stock was 56 1/2 before the dividend announcement was made. Chandler opened up a whole point at 73 1/2, and then advanced to 74 1/2 before selling off.

By far the most important news of the day was the announcement in a dispatch from Sharon, Pa., that the American Sheet and Tinplate company had cut wages at certain departments of its sheet mills 10 per cent, to become effective February 1. This is the first cut in both industrial and railroad fields are just as certain to follow as that night follows day.

W. W. Atterbury, vice president of Pennsylvania and chairman of the labor committee of the association of railway executives, appeared before the railroad labor board at Chicago today and made a strong statement of existing conditions, insisting that the solvency of some railroads depended on getting rid of the national rules and working conditions which organized labor adopted while the carriers were being operated by the government during war times, and substituting for the existing rules and regulations those which prevailed on December 31, 1917.

Each company was willing to use the December, 1917, rules and regulations regarding working conditions as a basis for negotiations with its men, maintaining wages on present basis for 90 days, to await results. If the old rules are re-established Atterbury predicted that not less than $300,000,000 would be saved in operating expenses annually. He said that railway wages were the last to go up, and should be the last to come down. But that the public had a right to demand a return to reasonable and economical working rules and regulations which sooner or later would lead to lower freight and passenger rates.

Will Get Public Support.
Mr. Atterbury is confident of public support of the public on this stand, and he is certain to be opposed by labor. But it is about the time that the public got some relief from the demand of organized railway labor and organized holders of railway bonds and stocks. Between the two the public has been paying through the nose for service which before the war would not have been tolerated.

American Sheet and Tinplate directors scheduled to meet tomorrow to act on the quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 per cent on the preferred shares. There is now 11 1/2 per cent back dividends due on the preferred shares. For 1920 there was a deficit after dividends were paid of $4,748,000. The company's 12 mills are running at about 30 per cent of capacity. To what extent inventories have been adjusted to meet the situation which suddenly arose last year will be disclosed in the forthcoming annual report. Wall street expects the directors to pass the 1 1/2 per cent quarterly dividend.

With crude oil accumulating because of the falling off in the demand of finished products, the oil industry, which held back in the general readjustment, is now making up for lost time. Every day or so the companies manufacturing refined crude oil announce a price cut. Today Pennsylvania crude oil was cut another 50 cents a barrel to $5. Early this morning the price was still as high as $5.75, against $6.10 last October. $5 last January. $4 in January of 1919, $3.25 for the same time in 1918, $1.50 in 1915, $2.50 in 1914, $2.05 in January of 1913.

Ford Has Wall Street Excited Over His Loan
BY ROBERT J. BENDER

New York, January 31.—Financial circles here believe that Henry Ford must go to Wall Street rather than to the public for the $100,000,000 he needs in his business. The fact that he has raised a sum through popular subscription for stock would mean that there would be no need of a loan. That he has raised an average of $1 each for every man, woman and child in the country.

That on average of one out of every twenty families would have to take one share of stock sold at $100 a share; or that if every man who bought a Ford in 1920 (there were 130,000 of them sold last year) bought an average of eight shares at $100 a share, the necessary sum could be raised.

New York, January 31.—This week is expected to determine whether Henry Ford, the famous motor manufacturer, will challenge the opinion of leading financiers and bankers that no man can raise $100,000,000 so before the people and raise $100,000,000 on a sale of preferred stock in his industry.

Word has passed through the big financial district here that Thursday Ford will give his answer to the proposal of a banking syndicate to underwrite a $100,000,000 long-term bond for the Ford motor works. Leading bankers believe Ford will accept the proposal simply because they believe he can't raise the money otherwise. There is doubt about the outcome, however, because of Ford's well-known dislike for Wall Street.

If Ford defies the bankers, it may develop an unusual financial situation. Unquestionably the big banks would close to Ford the usual agencies for dependent to a large degree upon business connections with great financial institutions. On this side of the question, too, it is agreed that Ford would be compelled to establish his own selling agencies and the costs attendant upon these, coupled with necessary advertising, would be a heavy burden.

On the other side of the discussion it is argued that if Ford advertises a fight with Wall Street, he would get columns of free advertisement for his stock issue and that by merely authorizing stock sales agents at his present Ford car launchings he would get the same effect. But the public response to his stock sales would probably be the whole issue in short time.

The question, according to leading bankers here, is purely one of whether the public confidence in Ford is such that it would risk putting $100,000,000 in a project launched in defiance of the institutions which control the money markets virtually of the entire world today. It is elected to fight Wall Street, it is a question of whether Ford is prepared to assume responsibility for a fight which might be carried on not only in this country, but in foreign lands as well. It is noted that in the present time of credit stress, the great banks upon whom so many different elements are dependent for aid, would an extraordinary influence over an unprecedentedly large sphere of interests.

Bankers Confident.
It is in surveying the matter from this angle, that the financial authorities here reach the conclusion that Ford must come to the big banks for the money he needs. It is admitted that W. A. McAdoo, when secretary of the treasury, sur-

New Militia Districts.

Barnesville, Ga., January 31.—(Special.)—The appointment by the ordinary, a committee has laid off Lamar county into six militia districts, the work having been completed. The districts will be known as Barnesville, Milledgeville, Johnstonville, Redbone and Piedmont. The new arrangement will afford more efficient control to the citizens of the districts, and it is believed the new districts will be very satisfactory to the people of the county.

HAD TERRIBLE COUGH AND NIGHT SWEATS

Cough about gone, and sleeps well, and gained 12 pounds.

"In December, 1913, I had a fearful cough, and my physician advised me to change climate immediately. I went to San Antonio, Texas, and entered a sanatorium. I left there and came to Oklahoma City in October, 1915. Had no appetite, could not sleep, had night sweats and was losing from one to three pounds a week. I also had catarrh of the bowels, which the doctor had been unable to relieve.

"Relatives urged me to try Milk's Emulsion. I did so and began to improve, slowly at first, but steadily. My weight has increased 12 pounds, I have no temperature, and my cough is about gone. I can eat heartily, sleep well and am working at my trade again. I. W. Neff, 610 N. Dewey St., Oklahoma City, Ok."

Nature does wonders in fighting off disease, if given the chance. Milk's Emulsion is a powerful aid in providing strength and flesh. It costs nothing to try.

Milk's Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, normal bowel-action, and with all need of pills and physics, it provides appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so potent that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk's Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions, and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and 120c per bottle. The Milk's Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggist everywhere.

CALL BELLE ISLE TAXICAB

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered that Olive Tablets were the best, most effective and most palatable for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-oil tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force you to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.
